Course Evaluation Results

Dear Professor Davis,

This email contains evaluation results for your WEB DESIGN X-L (COM263ISP2010) course.

Please note that the global indicators are listed first, followed by the individual average values, consisting of the following scales:

- THE COURSE
- THE PROFESSOR

In the second part of the analysis, the average values of all individual questions are listed, followed by student comments.

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact the system administrator at class.climate@ut.edu.

Thank you

Juliet Davis

Comments Report

1. THE COURSE

1.3) Comments on class activities:

- Davis is great at helping students. She's more than willing to take some one on one time and help you figure out exactly what went wrong.
- I learned a lot through the hands on projects, instead of having just to read about it.

1.6) Comments on class discussions:

- She took every question and answered it thoroughly.

1.9) Comments on exams/ quizzes/ tests:

- I didn't learn as much from the written quizzes as I did from the hands on portion.
- It doesn't make sense to me, why this kind of class has exams. It is entirely hands on application.

1.11) Comments on course organization:

- Learning the basics at the beginning built a good foundation, but it was hard remembering everything when building the final web site.
- think we should have learned the design/ logo portion first, then code, then develop our website...
instead we learned code, design, and then made our website which made me forget a lot of what we learned in the beginning

1.14) Comments on course pace:

- The class went very fast.

2. THE PROFESSOR

2.2) Comments on presentations/ explanations:

- More hands on activities instead of just lecturing.
- She is very knowledgeable on the subject and always has an opinion if we ask for it.
- she would lose me during her presentations, but if i had any questions she was more than willing to answer them.

2.5) Comments on enthusiasm:

- She was always excited to teach us and was very understanding if we had problems.

2.8) Comments on interest stimulated:

- I'm excited to continue building up my web site.

2.10) Comments on interactions:

- She always helped if I asked for it.
- Without her interactions I'd be lost!

2.13) Comments on feedback:

- There was always something to fix, but the feedback helped when designing the web site.

2.16) Comments on challenge:

- It was more of a hands on course, she didn't really push us to complete assignments. It was more of an individual push.

3. Additional comments

3.1) What aspect(s) of your classroom experience (course, professor, etc.) helped your learning most?

- Being able to work with the other students during the in class work time helped a lot. By learning from each other helped in the long run. The professor was there just in case.
- Doing hands on projects
- Hands on help from the professor and the online tutorials.
- The pace of the class was slow, making it easier for students to learn.
- the personal attention the teacher gave me helped a great deal. great teacher. haven't had many teachers willing to take the time to help the individual.

3.2) What aspect(s) of your classroom experience (course, professor, etc.) could have been changed to help your learning?

- I felt like a lot of points were taken off if we didn't complete a small portion of an assignment. I don't know the grading scales, so maybe it didn't have such a huge effect on the overall grade. At the time it seemed like a lot.
- More guidance on the final project for the whole class, no just one on one questions answered.
- Students who need extra help should seek help outside of class, not take up time during class.
- a slightly slower pace.
- just the order in which we learned things as I mentined above
